Introduction

About the NAPA CPFA® Credential

The NAPA Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA®) credential – developed by some of the nation's leading advisors and retirement plan experts – demonstrates your knowledge, expertise, and commitment to working with retirement plans. Plan advisors who earn their NAPA CPFA® demonstrate the expertise required to act as a plan fiduciary or help plan fiduciaries manage their roles and responsibilities.

About the National Association of Plan Advisors

The National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA), an affiliate organization of the American Retirement Association, was created by and for retirement plan advisors. Membership is also open to other retirement industry professionals who support the interests of plan advisors.

While the financial services industry is well represented in Washington by several trade associations that weigh in on issues affecting advisors, NAPA is the only advocacy group exclusively focused on the issues that matter to retirement plan advisors. This exclusive focus is what sets NAPA apart.

NAPA Membership offers four valuable benefits: advocacy, education, business intelligence, and networking – all designed to keep plan advisors in the forefront of the industry and help them succeed.

About the American Retirement Association (ARA)

The American Retirement Association (ARA) is a non-profit organization that aims to educate retirement plan professionals and create a framework of policy that gives every working American the ability to have a comfortable retirement.

As part of that mission, for more than half a century, the ARA has developed and distributed education programs, information resources, and professional credentials that have become the gold standard for retirement plan professionals in every field of endeavor.

More than 33,000 members strong, today the American Retirement Association is comprised of five premier retirement industry associations: the American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA), the American Society of Enrolled Actuaries (ASEA), the National Association of Plan Advisors (NAPA), the National Tax-deferred Savings Association (NTSA), and Plan Sponsor Council of America (PSCA).

Section 1: NAPA CPFA® Credential Requirements

Summary

NAPA has developed requirements for eligibility to ensure that the application process is fair and impartial for all applicants. Each eligibility requirement has been established to ensure that individuals certified by NAPA have an acceptable level of knowledge and proficiency necessary to administer retirement plans.

To obtain the NAPA CPFA® credential, individuals must:

- Successfully complete the NAPA CPFA® exam
- Agree to abide by the ARA Code of Professional Conduct
- Apply for the credential

Exam Requirement

The NAPA CPFA® exam is a 70-question multiple choice exam that assesses a candidate's knowledge of key retirement plan concepts commensurate with professional retirement plan advisor standards. Candidates must earn a passing score of 70% or greater on the NAPA CPFA® exam to qualify for NAPA CPFA® credentialed membership.

Experience and Education Requirement

No specific experience level is required, but if you are new to retirement plan sales, you might find it helpful to begin with NAPA's 401\(k\) Practice Builder.

Application Requirement

Candidates must apply for NAPA credentialed membership and agree to abide by the ARA Code of Conduct and NAPA continuing education policy.

Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC) Credential Alternative

NAPA CPFA® candidates may elect to use the Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC) credential if their broker/dealer requires use of QPFC rather than NAPA CPFA® credential on advertising material. The coursework, exam and application requirements are the same for both the QPFC and the NAPA CPFA® credential.

NAPA CPFA® and QPFA credential holders may switch credential titles as required by their broker/dealer at no cost by submitting a request to accountsreceivable@usaretirement.org. Candidates are encouraged to speak to their compliance department prior to selecting the NAPA CPFA® or QPFC designation on the NAPA credentialed membership application.

Section 2: Preparing for the NAPA CPFA® Certification Exam

Summary

The number of hours of study needed to prepare for NAPA examinations varies depending on the length and breadth of a candidate's experience in the field. Many successful candidates begin studying several months before an examination date to allow sufficient time to cover all the material to the proper extent.

NAPA has available study materials to help individuals prepare for the NAPA CPFA® certification exam. The NAPA CPFA® Online Course is the preferred study material for the examination and can be purchased separately.

The NAPA CPFA® online course is divided into four modules covering all the examination content:

3. ERISA Plan Investment Management
4. ERISA Plan Management 2

The modules listed above contain:

- All content covered in the examination, presented using case studies
- Interactive practice activities based on real life situations
- Multiple-choice sample questions that mimic the questions found on the examination
- Additional resources for continuous learning
